

Construction Safety Officer

We are looking for an experienced Construction Safety Office for our construction site office in Squamish. The position will conduct the safety plan which meets the WCB requirement and ensure the all personnel following the safety regulations.

Construction Safety Officer Responsibilities:

- Provide Health & Safety functional leadership, mentorship and guidance to site operations and workers
- Respond to issues relating to health, safety, environment, emergency response, performance metrics and safety management systems for site operations
- Conduct daily public health & safety inspections, and maintain records
- Schedule and organize safety meetings, training and orientations
- Review subcontractors safety programs and provide ongoing assistance to subcontractors
- Provider first aid services to all personnel on the work site as necessary
- Performs other duties as assigned

Construction Safety Officer Requirements:

- CSO / NCSO Certification
- Occupational First Aid Level 2&3
- Minimum 4 years of construction field safety experience
- Demonstrated ability to keep detailed and accurate records
- Working knowledge of MS Office (Outlook, Word, Excel)
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills

We thank all applicants for their interest in a career with the Holborn Group; however, only those identified for further consideration will be contacted. The successful candidate will be hired as a contractor. Please forward your resume to careers@holborn.ca.